Fall 2017

Connecting Catholic Business Professionals

Catholic Business League: Adding a new dimension

Since its founding in 2008, the Catholic Business League (CBL)'s vision has been to connect, develop, and inspire Catholic Professionals to live their faith at work, at home, and in their community.

Transition

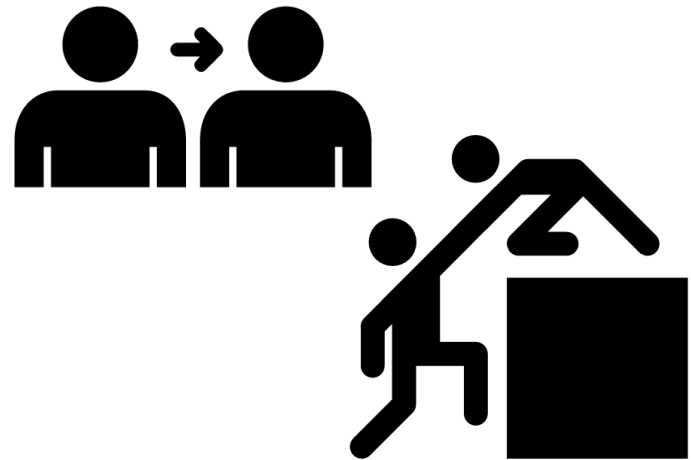

Over the years, CBL and its monthly breakfasts has built a reputation for assisting those in career transition.

2008 - Present

Growth

Leadership Catholic builds on this vision by supporting emerging leaders in search of professional development and spiritual growth.*

2017 Pilot

Developing faithful Catholic leaders at scale

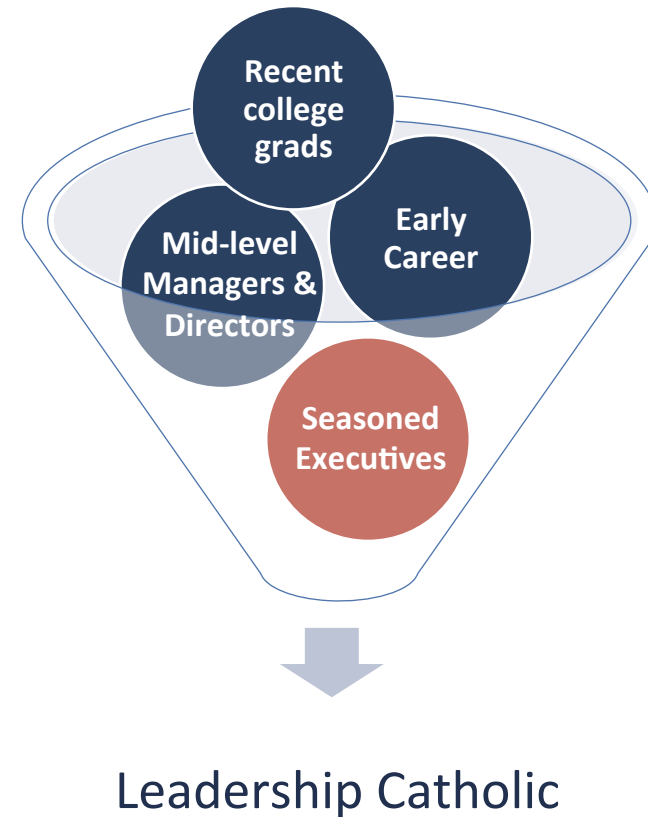

The program will comprise an eligibility period, application process, mentor-mentee pairing, exclusive leadership programming and development opportunities, and a graduation/report out at the September 2018 CBL Breakfast.

Program requirements for mentors and mentees

Mentees can be recent college grads up to more tenured professionals, with mentors comprising seasoned executives who have held VP, C-level, and/or Board-level positions. Pairs will try to be matched based upon industry, function, and experience.
